

Name: _____ Date: _____

Conjunctions (Joining Words)

Join these sentences together by using Conjunctions (and, but, because).

1. Tina was happy. There was a holiday.

2. Tina sings well. She sings too loudly.

3. I love to eat cake. I love to eat ice cream.

4. She did not drink her tea. It was cold.

5. He walked fast. He could not catch the bus.

6. I washed the clothes. She dried them.

7. She went to doctor. She was ill.

Conjunctions (Joining Words)

Join these sentences together by using Conjunctions (and, but, because).

1. Tina was happy. There was a holiday.

Tina was happy because there was a holiday.

2. Tina sings well. She sings too loudly.

Tina sings well but too loudly.

3. I love to eat cake. I love to eat ice cream.

I love to eat cake and ice cream.

4. She did not drink her tea. It was cold.

She did not drink her tea because it was cold.

5. He walked fast. He could not catch the bus.

He walked fast but could not catch the bus.

6. I washed the clothes. She dried them.

I washed the clothes and she dried them.

7. She went to doctor. She was ill.

She went to doctor because she was ill.