

Name: _____ Date: _____

Interrogative Sentences

Change statements into questions.

1. The children are playing hide and seek.

2. These girls were absent yesterday.

3. It is getting darker.

4. There will be a celebration tomorrow.

5. There are twelve months in a year.

6. Dia will come here tomorrow.

7. They have no food to eat.

8. She was waiting for the cab.

Interrogative Sentences

Change statements into questions.

1. The children are playing hide and seek.

Are the children playing hide and seek?

2. These girls were absent yesterday.

Were these girls absent yesterday?

3. It is getting darker.

Is it getting darker?

4. There will be a celebration tomorrow.

Will there be a celebration tomorrow?

5. There are twelve months in a year.

Are there twelve months in a year?

6. Dia will come here tomorrow.

Will Dia come here tomorrow?

7. They have no food to eat.

Have they no food to eat?

8. She was waiting for the cab.

Was she waiting for the cab?