

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Conjunction

Use the word (and/but/or) to put the sentences together:

a. Aviral went to the river. Aviral learned fishing.

_____

b. Would you like to have coffee? Would you like to have tea?

_____

c. I have to buy bread from the market. I have to buy butter from the market.

_____

d. Some children are afraid of cockroach. I am not afraid.

_____

e. My son eats every fruit. He likes mango the most.

_____

f. We can play badminton. We can play football.

_____

g. Ayush has brought sandwich in his lunch box. Ayush has brought sweets in his lunch box.

_____

h. Dia has to clean her room. She is very tired.

_____

The Conjunction

Use the word (and/but/or) to put the sentences together:

- a. Aviral went to the river. Aviral learned fishing.

Aviral went to the river and learned fishing.

- b. Would you like to have coffee? Would you like to have tea?

Would you like to have coffee or tea?

- c. I have to buy bread from the market. I have to buy butter from the market.

I have to buy bread and butter from the market.

- d. Some children are afraid of cockroach. I am not afraid.

Some children are afraid of cockroach but I am not afraid.

- e. My son eats every fruit. He likes mango the most.

My son eats every fruit but he likes mango the most.

- f. We can play badminton. We can play football.

We can play badminton or football.

- g. Ayush has brought sandwich in his lunch box. Ayush has brought sweets in his lunch box.

Ayush has brought sandwich and sweets in his lunch box.

- h. Dia has to clean her room. She is very tired.

Dia has to clean her room but she is very tired.